

If I do not care to receive calls from annoying solicitors at the most inconvenient hours of the day than I feel I have the right to tell the FCC DON'T ALLOW this practice to continue. I am a taxpayer in this state and country who should have the same rights as the 'big' corporations do even though I don't have the resources to hire a 'special interests' team of lawyers to fight for me.